Student Scholarship Fund for Students Studying the Built Environment in Hawaii

A Partnership between the Hawaii Architectural Foundation and the Honolulu Chapter of the American Institute of Architects

ABOUT THE HAF/AIA HONOLULU SCHOLARSHIP FUND

For more than ten years, the Honolulu Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Hawaii Architectural Foundation have independently awarded thousands of dollars in scholarships to Architecture Students studying at the University of Hawaii.

In 2017 the two organizations entered into a partnership agreement to benefit the future leaders of the Architecture profession in Hawaii by creating the Architecture and Built Environment Student Scholarship Fund. The fund is designed to collectively provide ongoing annual support in the form of student scholarships for full-time students studying the Built Environment (Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Planning, Urban Design, etc) at a Higher Education program in Hawaii.

By working together, our two organizations hope to reach a broader audience throughout our local community, and eventually provide increased scholarship support to our local students.

The Scholarship Fund supports new generations of students studying the built environment by recognizing leadership, rewarding superior student performance, encouraging diversity, supporting original research, and assisting students with unmet financial needs.

Donations to the Fund are made directly to the Hawaii Architectural Foundation, a 501(c)3 charity, making all gifts fully tax-deductible for donors. The fund will provide a minimum of two $1000 scholarships each year, with the goal of even more based on the interest and/or dividends generated by the fund principal.

BENEFITS OF GIVING

Supporters will be recognized for their generosity on the HAF/AIA Honolulu Scholarship Fund website and at any scholarship-related events. Your name and gift level will also be listed in AIA Honolulu Annual Report.

PREPARING THE LEADERS WHO TRANSFORM OUR PROFESSION

Over the past ten years, more than 25 students at the University of Hawaii, School of Architecture have been awarded scholarships from the Hawaii Architectural Foundation and the Honolulu Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. These students have prepared themselves to enter the challenging yet rewarding profession of Architecture.

Today we are proud to announce a scholarship fund designed to support any student studying the built environment through a higher education institution in the state of Hawaii. The funds generated from the HAF/AIA Honolulu Scholarship Fund will offer future students even more support on their path to becoming the future leaders of our industry.

Your support of the next generation of architects, designers, planners, engineers, landscape architects, and any student looking to make a difference to the built environment is critical to the successful future of our community and our professions.
